Romania Belgium Business Club

Role, objectives

Wednesday, 04 November 2009 13:11

The Club was created at the initiative of the Romanian Embassy in Brussels and of a number of Romanian and Belgian entrepreneurs and organizations. The Club aims at developing overall economic cooperation between Romanian and Belgian companies as well as businessmen and supporting partnerships and the transfer of good practices/expertise in the win-win logic. Concretely, the Club intends to:

- Provide information on the two countries' business environment and economic profile (areas of excellence, regulations, competitiveness poles, development priorities, strategic areas, banking systems, financial markets etc.);
- Facilitate contacts between:
 - Romanian and Belgian companies interested in developing business and investment opportunities and long-term cooperation;
 - Policy-makers at central and local level;
 - European institutions' and Romanian and Belgian academia's representatives
- Promote and enhance visibility of businesses / successful projects that have proven their viability in the last years;
- Stimulate debates and exchanges of opinions, particularly between employers' associations, oriented towards correlating approaches in areas of mutual interest of the Southern and Eastern European neighborhood, with a view to possible joint undertakings on third markets.
